Everything you wanted to know about alien sex but were afraid to ask. Join newlyweds Quinn and Xindra as they start their Alien Sex Ed class to teach others about interracial relations on their planet. New Earthling Quinn encounters some startling surprises from his bride on their wedding night, like the fact that losing his virginity to an Allurian woman is painful. Now he and Xindra are determined to educate others so they don't face the same problems, but this isn't your ordinary anatomy on. This class is hands-on and more than a little steamy. (Previously published by Liquid Silver Books as part of a two-novella volume titled Alien Sex 101. This work has been revised and re-edited.)
