A powerful account of the life changing events that occurred for a survivor of child sexual abuse. As Anna faces the pain of her reality, she leads the reader into an understanding of the thought processes and damage caused by abuse.

She reveals how her faith in the Living God, led her to a deep place of understanding herself and the decision to move forward, take her stand with the rest of humanity and live. "This is a book which I would recommend to anyone who is walking through the pain of abuse. A book of courage in the face of overwhelming odds; a book which will touch your heart and give you hope." Ruth Hawkey: Author of Pastoral Care book series.
