TOP 10 EROTIC THRILLERS, TOP TEN IN BDSM EROTICA Sandy was looking for a TA job for her senior year to give her more time and money. Her roommate, Brooke, was looking for a TA job that would enrich her sex life with a professor or two. But, fate gave them each the opposite. Sandy found that the TA position with Professor Michael Gerard was more than the normal help with his students' grades and schedules. It was desperation on her part that drove her to seduction to secure the last TA position, but Michael thought it should be submission that would secure it for her. Sandy finds success in securing the position, and her life is suddenly much more interesting and sexually fulfilling, although she could never fathom what Michael would come up with next. From helping Michael attend to students interested in 'extra credit' to raise their grade to Michael's colleagues with remarkable inventions that were sexually challenging but fulfilling, Michael takes Sandy on a voyage of sexual experimentation.
