"The Daily Rounds of a Hound" is the story of Molly Malone - an adorable mutt adopted from an animal shelter by a new family. Once home, the family learns that Molly is carrying stowaways - a litter of nine pups. Inspired by the rhyming children's picture books we all grew up with, the artwork of illustrator Britt Sekulic is the perfect complement-both colorful and whimsical, bringing the personality of this hound to life. Molly has no pedigree, but takes her job as family pet seriously. She patrols the house, protects the kids and goes on secret missions (or does she?). Ultimately, "The Daily Rounds of a Hound" is the story of everyone's dog, our love for them and how much we get in return.
