When Jack and his long time girlfriend Amy are contacted by Father Hugh MacIver their lives are irreversibly altered. Things start to go wrong in the lives of highschool sweethearts Jack and Amy after they are contacted by Father Hugh MacIver. The journey all three must take is fraught with danger. The future of humankind depends on the successful completion of their mission. They must enter another dimension and prevent evil forces from entering ours. Warned to trust no one, they know that their mission will end in failure if they heed the advice. The problem is: who can they turn to in a world filled with lies and deceit.
