Now she was left alone with the man of the house: in the dark, behind a grocery store, in a wet bikini. It's going to be hard talking myself out of this one.

Joining a sorority as a freshman isn't all it's cut out to be for little brats like Mandy. When she's given the duty to run a car wash fundraiser all by herself, she's forced to miss curfew and to flaunt her body to get more donations.

Of course, she didn't anticipate that the man of the house would find out where his blonde little princess is. There's only one punishment for girls who don't do as they're told: to be taken rough and without protection, no matter the consequences, and whether they like it or not.
