Blurb By the use of divination and magic, some ties can never be severed. "In the beginning by the light of the Full Moon Frankie connects with Candice's energy through dream time and witnesses her involvement in a terrifying act of violence. After receiving information from Sandra that their childhood friend is missing they pack their bags and then head to the inner city to find her. Frankie, afraid for her own safety has a chance encounter with a local named Calvin who is plugged into what's happening. Using his workable ideas as well as Frankie and Sandra consulting tarot, ordinary playing cards, astrology, and spell-casting, they set forth to free Candice from the dangerous situation she is in." Excerpt "Sandra leaned against the door frame, reached into her low-rider jeans' back pocket and produced an envelope. She passed the folded paper to her. Frankie stared at the picture, reading the words: Child Find, Missing; young female seventeen, eyes hazel, brown hair, height 5'7", weight 120. "How could you keep this from me?" she asked, tightening her grip on the envelope. "I didn't. Yesterday, my mom received her Visa bill.

She gave me the envelope when she saw Candice's picture. I phoned her parents. They are in the middle of a divorce. Her mom said when they first split she began to stay out late. Then one day she just never came home." "We have to find her. The police haven't been able to," Frankie said, waving the envelope. "We will do what we must do to track her. Did you bring your cards?" "Yes." "Come with me," she said, grabbing her hand.

She dragged her into the dish room stopping to retrieve her Tarot deck from the pocket of her jean jacket. " __
