Jacob is hot single dominant male looking for a new submissive female.

He has been working hard and has a day off. He travels to the local Nudie Beach and meets Emily with five faint even strips on her ass. Has he found the woman of his dreams? I enjoyed writing their story and hope you will enjoy reading it. Contains light BDSM in a domestic setting. All characters are over eighteen and due to content this is an adult story for those over eighteen (or the legal age where you live).

I hope you enjoy the love story of Jacob and Emily.
