There are many odd and fascinating creatures inhabiting the Kanto region. This field guide can help a traveler identify all of the creatures known to inhabit the region (as of a study performed in 1998, anyway) as well as providing valuable information about their habitats and temperament in order to help a traveler be prepared for the encounter.

The features of the Field Guide to Kanto include: 158 full-color pages Colorful illustrations of all 151 creatures discovered during the 1998 survey Descriptions of these creatures, including updated information discovered since the initial survey, such as Elemental affinity Habitat Behavior A full-color map of the Kanto region The book is available in both hardback and paperback formats. The hardback version has the following unique features: Foil-embossed, sturdy cover Dust jacket which doubles as a poster The descriptions and illustrations are the result of years of study by Professor Kari Fry. The books were printed by the ink-types at Bang Printing.
