Rust to Gold..... GUNS TO GOSPEL The hands that once carried bombs and guns now carry the HOLY BIBLE. The hands that once threw bombs and handled guns now sow the Word of God. This is a true story of a man who walked the road to perdition: a political factionalist in the province of Andhra Pradesh of India who sowed death and destruction for 14 long years, terrorized the populace with a brand of violence that was unprecedented in its brutality, defied the law of the land and supplanted it with his own; the story of a man who descended into an abyss of alcoholism and self-destruction. This is the story of Michael Jeffrey Vijayakumar who, on the verge of eternal damnation, cried out to the Lord Jesus Christ and experienced an explosion that changed his life forever.

Once a criminal and a killer now a servant of the Living God. Michael Jeffrey Vijayakumar
