Joshua and his family face economic loss and personal tragedy; things that would test any young family and create personal anguish and self doubt. But their faith has taught them to rejoice in the trials, for the trials will test their faith but increase their patience. For it is written in the book of James 1:2-3 “My brethren, count it all joy when ye fall into divers temptations (various trials); Knowing this, that the trying of your faith worketh patience.” Joshua and his family are determined to overcome each trial and build a better life for themselves. But will they be patient and succeed?
