Three Corporate Superwoman Shilpa, Karen and Varsha work for a sinking Cosmetic Company, The Khoobsurat Unlimited. A highly demanding job coupled with an organization culture of extreme competitiveness, rapid changes and pressure screws up major elements in their personal lives. The story interconnects their professional life experiences with their personal life experiences. This is how it started. Whole India was aware of the scandal at The Khoobsurat Unlimited, all except Karen Ross from America.

Because when Karen decided to accept the job offer as a Marketing Manager at the company, not only did she find out about the scandal but something much deeper.

And now, she was stuck. As much as she wanted to, she could not leave The Khoobusurat Unlimited..... nor could she leave India.....
