Extreme horror and gore from the twisted mind of Jubilee Savage. Quitting smoking is hard. It's even worse with a thank job, a nagging wife and a surprise baby on the way. Dan can't seem to keep his fingers off those sweet, sweet coffin nails, even when his wife signs him up for a smoking cessation program that features an ironclad guarantee and a 100% success rate, for a fee. But Dan will quit smoking, even if it kills him. Horror and splatterpunk fans will love every tense, frightening, creepy moment of this extreme horror and gore-filled short by author Jubilee Savage, 4,000+ words.
