I didn't realize how much harder college was going to be than high school. I pretty much breezed through high school with minimal effort. College on the other hand wasn't quite the same. I quickly learned that I would have to utilize one of my most prized assets, my ass! It doesn't take long for my History professor to take me up on my offer, on learned! Warning: This ebook contains explicit sex and includes teacher/student sex, rough sex, and more so only mature adults who won't find that offensive should read this story. Here is a preview: I turned back around, marched right back to his desk and screamed at him. I called him just about every vile name that I could think of, and he continued to laugh.

I was so mad I started to cry. I mean, there I was offering him sex in exchange for grades, pretty much exposing myself to the elements and he was fucking laughing! I drew back my arm to slap him, and he caught it in midair. Oh fuck, I was in trouble! Time to add assault to list of crimes I had committed in the past twenty minutes! I can imagine the call my father would get, yup, I was in trouble. Mr. Royal twisted my arm so hard that my body turned around and I was now bent over his desk. I was waiting for him to cuff me and call campus security, but he didn't. He grunted, hiked my skirt up past my ass, and pulled my legs open and then yanked my panties down to my ankles. I felt his cock rubbing against my pussy lips and I sighed with relief.

He wasn't going to call security, he was going to fuck me right there bent over his desk.
