After a two-year courtship, Lily is crushed when her boyfriend breaks up with her over dinner one night. Attempting to soothe her broken heart with spirits at a local bar, she soon realizes that drinking her sorrows away is a risky proposition. So, on a bleak Friday evening in December as she heads to her new watering hole, a quaint and eclectic tearoom catches her eye. While she stands in the street conflicted about her predicament, she gets a glimpse inside the little shop. What she discovers within changes her completely. A touching and heartfelt story involving two grieving women who find compassion and romance with each other, Tea with Trina is guaranteed to warm the reader's heart.
