Have you noticed those fortunate people who have everything going for them, and who have all they want? And it seems like they get it easily, as if they were born with a guardian angel fulfilling all their wishes. Have you ever wondered how it is so? Those people know how to attract and create the reality they want! Just like these rare situations when whatever you need just falls into the right place or comes to you from an out-of-the-blue. This kind of experience is an evidence of the Law of Attraction in YOUR life and the trick here is; to create more and more of these experiences until they become you very own reality. This book Will teach you how to: Work with our thoughts and feelings in order to allow the Law of Attraction to work for us, just like those fortunate people. Begin attracting the things we Do want How to stop attracting the things we do not want
