KerryAnne Dawson has never been one to sit still for long, which is why when weird things are happening at Laketown Bible College - again - KerryAnne is determined to find out who, what and why. Who would be sneaking around campus? What are they after? And why are they out to keep her quiet?

Book Two in the KerryAnne Dawson adventures. This series is inspired by the old time girl detective stories. Set at Bible college, it is a clean Christian read, but not preachy. A short story at about 22,000 words.
