Before they fall asleep one night, six-year-old Amy and her little sister Ally hear a strange thumping sound coming from the attic. Ally believes what her mother tells her, “It is just a mouse running around in the attic, nothing else.” But, Amy thinks differently. She wants to launch her own search. Is it a mouse? Or is it something else? This delightful bedtime story will totally change the way your kids feel about monsters. A Strange Sound from the Attic is a unique monster story not just for all monster-loving kids, but for those who are afraid of mysterious sounds in the night.
