As one sister ends her love story, the other sister will begin one of her own. Bobby is married to the beautifully angelic Rose Marie Kalhune. Bobby's whole world is torn apart when his wife goes missing. Rose Marie's sister chose to live her life by the rules and regulations of God, until a catastrophic secret forces her to leave the abbey and enter into the real world.

Will she survive being on the outside or will she return to a life of servitude and keep quiet about the activities happening within the monastery walls? Kimberly, one of Bobby's co-workers, has devised a plan to make him loose everything he cherishes. Will she succeed?
