Always away serving his country, Katie misses her stepfather so very much, keeping old photos close to her heart...and close to other places as well. When she gets one day with him before he has to go back across the world, she wants to make their short time truly special for the both of them, giving him her virginity, and the chance to start a new family with Daddy's seed. This 6,200 word erotic short story isn't for minors, and is meant more for people who enjoy taboo scenes of a daughter giving her stepdaddy her virginity and her womb, as well as lusting after buff middle aged military men, messy creampie, breeding and impregnation, and wearing Daddy's old shirts.
