China, 1979. Alex, who spend childhood and youth in China, becomes Polish consul in Kanton. Suprising work events made that Alex catches a track of Mimi, his childhood friend and his first love. Majority of her blood was Asian and Mimi was uddhist and believed that she's incarnation of Tanguc princess died three centuries earlier. Alex meets on his way Max von Rimsa: double (Russian and English) agent, who helps him to contact Kate Gladstone – Mimi's daughter. This causes a lot of unexpected events. Author spent many years in Asia, what explains connections with unknown or random episodes of Far East history. Heroes and main plot placed in the time of last days of war and surrender of Japanease Kanton Army are fictional. But author tried to present other historical events in background of a main plot in believable way.
