Imagine taking the sun from the sky.... Living without the love of your life Running off high emotions and living for love LaBrea is still causing chaos. Love has already made a fool of her once. After overcoming obstacles, Lyric refuses to play the fool any longer under any circumstances.

Just when Aries thinks all is well and he's in the clear all his dirty secrets are about to be finally exposed. Not one to be played hot firecracker Martine has gotten tangled up in LaBrea's web of betrayal and deceit --- she's coming for everything that is hers.

Meanwhile, never one to mind her own business Sade is lurking around in the background asking questions that she may not be able to handle the answers. At the same time, Rick convinces Phaedra to mind her own business. In the midst of it all, what's done in the dark comes to the light as Dark steps out the shadows. Everything all comes full circle as they all realize you can't play games with people and focus on what is really important to them. Once about to lose it all, they each find out just what "Everything to me" means.
