AFTER ALL I'M JUST A BALL....." is a children's poetry guessing book. Each sports ball comes to life in his own character and personality telling the child what incredible things he can do. He can bounce high or roll low, he is always fast never too slow. The child tries to guess what kind of ball is talking after the poem is read. It's lots of fun to read for ages 4 and up. It's a joy to read for every girl and boy.
