Life takes unexpected turns for the protagonists as they face life head-on to find their way through difficult family relationships, betrayals, workplace challenges and emotional upheavals to emerge stronger and successful in life and, in love. Moving On encapsulates the experience of the simple but resilient girl – Smriti -- who courageously tries to leave behind her traumatic past and make a life for herself in a big city full of strangers. After sudden tragic situations turn her life upside down, Smriti is trying to pick up the pieces of her life when she finds love unexpectedly in Rohan, her boss. Opposites attract but Smriti is not able to reciprocate his love. Why does she always withdraw into a shell? What is she hiding from him? Does she have dark secrets hidden in her past? To forge a relationship with Rohan, Smriti will have to face her fears and do something that she dreads most – confront her past! Will she be able to do it? Will she find everlasting love and happiness with Rohan? Also, is Rohan able to believe in love anymore? First time novelist, Jaya Jha, narrates this story of how Smriti makes a new life for herself, adjusting to the corporate world while retaining her simplicity and integrity.
